SOUTHFIELDS GRID RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION COMMITTEE MEETING, TUESDAY 25th March 2008

The SGRA meetings are held at St. Barnabas Church hall, Lavenham Road at 8pm on the last Tuesday of each month, except in August and December. All residents are welcome.

The Committee discussed various matters at the meeting. Below is a summary of the topics covered:

St Barnabas Church:

A programme of events will be proposed in due course for the Church's centenary on 9th May. A cherry tree is being planted to commemorate this milestone.

Social Events: All residents are very welcome to attend!

Children's party: Saturday 14th June, St Barnabas Church. A party with musical and magical entertainment and light refreshments is being organised for young children and their families living in The Grid. It is the first party of it's kind and expected to be a real success.

Golden Oldies: The Grids older generation enjoyed live music, a buffet and a raffle on 15th March 2008. It was reported to be the best Golden Oldies the SGRA has held so far!

Annual softball: scheduled for 14th July
